FOOD COMMISSIONER LIFTS BAN ON MUTTON AND LAMB.

Evidence that the palates of Kentuckians can be tickled and their hearts gladdened, even in war times, is furnished by two rulings issued Sunday in Washington and announced by Fred M. Sackett, State Food Administrator and received here Sunday by County Food Administrator John T. Collins.

The first of these two orders gives assurance that those who enjoy fried chicken will not be deprived of their favorite dish, despite a ruling recently promulgated prohibiting the use or sale of chickens. The other removes the ban on mutton and lamb on the meatless Tuesdays until April 15.

Mr. Sackett received word direct from Washington that the prohibition against the sale of live and freshly killed hens and pullets, which went into effect February 11, does not apply to broiling chickens weighing two pounds or less. Therefore those who enjoy the tender chickens may obtain the lightweight broiler from their dealers as usual.

The State of Kentucky was included in the list of States wherein the use of mutton and lamb will be permitted on the meatless Tuesdays until April 15, in another order issued in Washington. The Food Administration has found that the saving in mutton and lamb which has been made through the conservation movement is sufficient to take care of the needs at the present time, and in order to relieve the people of Kentucky from as much as possible of the inconvenience caused by the food restrictions they have been withdrawn thus far.

This relief will be greatly appreciated by the hotels and restaurants, it is believed, as they have found it difficult to make their menus completely satisfactory on meatless days.

REPORT OF DANIELS SALE

Auctioneer M. F. Kenney reports a large attendance and good prices obtained at the sale of farming implements, stock, crop, etc., belonging to Miss Sara Daniel, held on the premises, on the Bethelcham pike, Friday. Horses brought from $40 to $157; cows, $53 to $58; sheep, $16 per head; sow and pigs, $60; brood sows, $30 to $50; one mule, $162; yearling calves, $35 per head; seventy-pound shoats, $12.50 per head; stock heifers, $39 per head; tobacco sticks, $12 per 1,000. Farming implements sold at good prices.

GOVERNMENT AGAIN URGES CONSERVATION OF FUEL.

Mr. Jas. H. Thompson, of Paris, Federal Fuel Commissioner for Bourbon county, is in receipt of the following communication from the National Fuel Administrator, requesting that he give it publicity in the local press:

The Conservation Division of the Fuel Administration has set itself the task of enlisting the co-operation of the consumer in the thrifty use of the coal shovel. The establishment of the save-coal habit, as against the habitual coal wastefulness of the American people, will prove a great national asset even after the close of the war.

The householder is asked to—

1. Use wood or oil instead of coal where possible.
 2. If wasteful open fireplace must be used, burn wood in it.
 3. Use fireless cookers.
 4. Save electric and gas light.
 5. Heat as few rooms as possible.
 6. Learn how to run stoves and furnaces economically. Free pamphlet on economical house heating can be obtained from the United States Bureau of Mines.
 7. Keep the thermometer at 68 degrees, no higher, for health.
 8. Save a shovelful of coal a day.
- Coal conservation has become a patriotic duty. The man who wastes not only coal, but he wastes labor and transportation. He stands in a very serious position. With every shovelful of coal he wastes he lowers the efficiency of the man on the firing line, he lowers the temperature of the cantonments, he reduces the speed of the submarine destroyers, he diminishes the force of the projectile, he slackens the speed of the munition plant; in brief, he compels the unfortunate use of cars to carry him another shovelful of coal.

FAYETTE DEEDS RECORDED.

Among the deeds filed for record in the office of the County Clerk of Fayette county, last week were the following:

J. O. Hedges to C. I. Adair, ninety nine acres on the Frankfort pike, John E. Madden to S. Kenney Nichols, 117 acres on the Maysville & Ironworks pike.

REAL ESTATE DEALS AND LAND SALES.

Mr. John J. Connell sold last week to Mr. G. M. Turner, a vacant lot on West street, in Paris, for a private price.

Mr. George W. Roberts purchased of Dr. Lee R. Henry, of North Middletown, his farm on the Oldson pike, near North Middletown, known as the Wade farm, for $125 per acre. Dr. Henry was offered a substantial advance on the farm on the Winchester pike, which he recently purchased of Mr. Munday.

Moving day struck the North Middletown vicinity all in a heap. Mr. James L. Gregory and family moved to Georgetown; Mr. J. Walter Rice and family moved to a farm near bought the Main street business. W. Douglas moved from the farm near Plum Lick, which he recently sold, to a farm near Donaldson; Eld. F. M. Tindler moved to the property of Mrs. A. P. Bryan; David Pence, L. B. Laughlin, Green Walling and Clarence Laughlin and their families have moved to farms in Shelby county; Chas. Oldson and family and Mr. Doane and family will move this week to farms in Oldham county.

Auctioneer George D. Speakes conducted the sale of property Tuesday afternoon belonging to Dr. D. S. Henry, of Paris. Mr. W. R. Blakemore, of Mitchell & Blakemore, bought the Main street business house between Fifth and Sixth, occupied by H. S. Clarke as a barber shop, for $5,065. The cottage on Sixteenth street was purchased by Richard Butler, for $2,000. Three other cottages on the same street were withdrawn.

Mr. T. B. Brown, of Bourbon county, purchased last week a farm containing thirty-six acres of land, located on the Winchester pike in Fayette county, for $301 per acre. The place had formerly been used as an Eruptive Hospital farm for Fayette county. Mr. Brown will take possession of the place in about two weeks.

On Saturday Auctioneer George D. Speakes sold the Wm. Lenihan farm near the old Bourbon County Fair Grounds, at public auction, Mr. Charles N. Peddicord, of Paris, being the purchaser, at $4,400. Mr. Peddicord will move to the place to reside. In this issue of THE NEWS he advertises his city property on Main street for sale.

Auct. Speakes conducted a successful sale of stock, crop and farming implements, near Avon, Saturday, belonging to the firm of Buckley & Maybrier. Everything brought good prices. The attendance was good and the bidding spirited.

On Saturday, Mr. Jesse M. Alverston, owner and editor of the Georgetown News, purchased of Mr. Wm. H. Whaley, the latter's farm of 330 acres, located on the Jackstown pike, for a private price. Mr. Whaley will give possession on May 1. This farm is the old Henry Hibler place, known later as "Maplelawn Stock Farm," which was purchased of the Hibler estate by the late Mr. P. J. Millet. Mr. Whaley bought the farm about a year ago from the administrators of Mr. Millet, and the price he sold it for Saturday is said to have realized a handsome profit for him.

Clifton H. Dalzell and Wm. Barr purchased Saturday through the Paris Realty Co., the seventy-five acre farm near Ewell's Cross Roads, known as the H. M. Wagoner farm for $225 per acre. The farm was sold in December for $200 per acre.

Miller & Lilleston bought of the Bourbon Realty Co., Saturday a cottage on Fifteenth street at a price not made public.

Auctioneer Geo. D. Speakes conducted the public auction on the premises yesterday of Mrs. Nannie Clay Howard's fine farm of about 118 acres, located on the Clintonville & Ironworks pike. Mr. Kelley Haley was the purchaser, paying $162.50 per acre for the farm.

For fire, wind, lightning and automobile insurance, see Yerkes & Peed, at Farmers & Traders Bank.

INJURED IN COLLISION WITH AUTOMOBILE.

Arthur Donnell, residing near Antioch church, just over the line in Fayette county, sustained a broken leg Sunday at Tenth and Main streets, when the motorcycle he was riding collided with an automobile.

Young Donnell and a companion had spent part of the day in Paris and were returning home. Donnell was guiding the motorcycle, which got beyond his control as they approached Main and Tenth streets. A Ford machine coming in the opposite direction struck the motorcycle, badly damaging it and throwing the boys to the street. Donnell's right leg was fractured just above the ankle. His companion was slightly injured. Donnell was taken to a physician's office, where the broken member was set. He was removed later to his home.

REPORT OF REDMON SALE.

At the sale of stock, crop, etc., of Mr. Wm. Redmon, conducted on the farm near Paris, Friday, by Auctioneer Geo. D. Speakes, good prices were realized. Sheep brought $17 per head; cows, $65 to $100 per head; sows, $55 to $60; sows and pigs, $65 to $75; corn, $8.50 per barrel; hay, $35 a ton; chickens, $1.25 each.

DOINGS OF STATE SOLONS IN LEGISLATURE.

By a vote of 51 to 11, the House accepted the report of the Committee on Agriculture, of which Claude M. Thomas, of Bourbon county, is chairman, expressing the opinion that the tobacco trust investigation resolution offered by Representative R. T. Smith, of Hart county, ought not to pass and pointing out the fact that the three counties said to be interested in the resolution had their remedy in the courts under State laws already in effect if evidence could be obtained.

The committee frankly reports that its action is based on the fact that tobacco is commanding the highest price in the history of the State, or of the trade, and that the crop of 1917 has been "the most enormously profitable of any in the history of our agricultural life."

Mr. Thomas urged the House to let the tobacco market alone this year, at least. He said he had been in the thick of the fight for tobacco prices, had been threatened with assassination and jail, and that he did not believe there ever had been any dissolution of the tobacco trust and that that great organization still had the power to depress or to raise price.

An act to prohibit the manufacture and sale of cigarettes was introduced by Senator Richardson. The bill fixes a fine of not less than ten nor more than a hundred dollars and imprisonment in county jail for not less than five nor more than fifty days for violations of the act.

The Senate by the vote of 16 to 13 passed the bill of Senator W. A. Perry, of Louisville, to regulate boxing contests.

The bill creates a State Athletic Board of Control to be composed of three persons, one of whom is to be a physical director and secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and one a physical director and secretary of the Knights of Columbus.

With the senatorial district reapportionment enacted and signed by the Governor, efforts to frame an acceptable reapportionment of the 109 legislative districts have been redoubled by Senator Brock, of Harlan, who has a substitute bill give the Democrats a shade the best of it, reducing the normally Republican districts to about thirty-one, whereas now thirty-six or thirty-seven usually go Republican.

On the other hand, in order to conform to the Constitution and reduce the number of big, growing, mountain counties in a district or two, it has been necessary to double up some counties in Central and Western Kentucky. Bourbon, under the bill still remains as the Twenty-seventh District.

THE TOBACCO MARKETS.

Daniel & Oder, 2,165 pounds; average $37.48.
Bell & Hill, 6,535 pounds; average $35.36.
R. Purcell, 6,435; average $41.07.

The Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Company has sold at its two houses for the season a total of 5,686,610 pounds of tobacco, which brought a total of $1,640,417, and an average of $28.85. The Independent House sold for the season a total of 2,846,325 pounds of tobacco, for which the sum of $819,995.79 was realized, an average of $28.81. The combined total for the Paris market makes 8,532,935 pounds sold for a money consideration of $2,460,412.89.

Though prices on the Paris market continue good, some of the Bourbon county growers are taking their crops to other markets to be sold. Last week R. H. Ferguson & Duncan, of this county, sold a crop of 3,350 pounds at the Big Burley House in Lexington for an average of $38.10, and Botkins & Lighter sold 3,860 pounds at the Independent House for an average of $40.63.

COURT OF APPEALS DECIDES BOURBON CASES.

The Court of Appeals has reversed the case of Brooks Clay vs. H. Clay Howard, committee for George Clay. Brooks Clay purchased 240 acres of land from George Clay at $104 per acre. The heirs of George Clay sought to have the sale set aside, and it was so ordered by the Bourbon Circuit Court, the heirs claiming that George Clay was incompetent to transact business. The Court of Appeals holds that he was, and Brooks Clay is given the right to hold the land.

The Court of Appeals reversed the Giftner vs. Giftner case and sends it back to the lower courts for a new trial.

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Robert Lee Sims, son of the late Rev. J. J. Sims, formerly pastor of the Paris Methodist church, has enlisted in the United States Army, and has been assigned to Camp Grant, at Rockford, Ill. Mr. Sims wrote to this effect recently to Mrs. Rebecca Freeman Sims, in Paris.

Several Bourbon boys were at home from Camp Zachary Taylor from Saturday to Monday. Private Herbert King reports all the Bourbon county boys doing well. They are all anxious to get out of camp life and see active service.

The new arrivals from Paris are rapidly getting accustomed to the routine of camp life, and sent back cheering messages to the "home folks."

Carl Mitchell, of Paris, arrived here Sunday from Camp Perry, at the Great Lakes Naval Training station, near Chicago, to spend a six-days' furlough. Mitchell is a member of Co. M, in the Public Works Department, of Camp Perry, and a team-mate of Ben Leach, another Paris boy. Mitchell says the Paris and Bourbon county boys at Camps Dewey, Decatur and Perry are contented, happy, well-fed and as hearty looking as a bunch of corn shuckers. He says Ben Leach has gained about twenty pounds in weight and is feeling fine. These boys, according to Mitchell, may not be at Camp Perry much longer, as they are likely to be transferred to a ship on active duty soon.

Lieut. Thomas Howard, of Lexington, formerly of Millersburg, was a recent visitor in Paris. Lieut. Howard is stationed at Camp Kelley, near San Antonio, Texas, and is a fine-looking representative of Uncle Sam's big army. Lieut. Howard states that army officers everywhere praise Kentucky soldiers for their quick acquiring of military tactics and their readiness "to do or die" in the service.

Ralph J. Huffman, formerly of Paris, who is now "somewhere in France" as a member of the American Expeditionary Force, writes his mother, Mrs. W. J. Huffman, in Covington, that he arrived safely and had no very thrilling experiences. Huffman is a member of Co. C, 327th Machine Battalion. In the letter Huffman says:

"I don't know what you will think of me for not telling you I was leaving Camp Merritt. I thought I would wait until I reached my destination before I wrote you. I thought you would be worrying if you knew I was crossing the ocean, but everything has come out all O. K." The letter was accompanied by a postcard photo showing "Whitey" to be a fine appearing "Uncle Sam's man."

Capt. Winn Lisle, of the U. S. Army, is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lisle, near Paris, on a brief furlough. Capt. Lisle, who has been at Camp Funston, in Kansas, has been transferred to West Point Military Academy, where he

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

At the recent meeting of the City Council, presided over by Mayor January, with the full Board present, the bid of the Paris Gas & Electric Co., for lighting the city, at a slight increase over the present contract, was referred to the Light Committee, Mr. W. A. Garland, who is employed by the city in auditing the city's books, was also empowered to audit the books of the Massie Memorial Hospital, the City Board of Education and the Paris Public Library. The salary of City Health Officer A. H. Keller was fixed at $250 per annum.

An ordinance offered to keep children from skating on the sidewalks was turned down by a vote of 4 to 3. The council passed an ordinance, which will be found in another column of this issue of THE NEWS, fix a tax of one dollar yearly on dogs, and all dogs found without the license tag are to be humanely destroyed. Mayor January read a communication from Attorney General Charles H. Morris, stating that, in his opinion, the city was entitled to State aid for the upkeep of Main street. Police were ordered to enforce the ordinance prohibiting throwing trash and refuse in the streets. They were also ordered to strictly enforce the ordinance against speeding automobiles within the corporate limits of the city. A contract was entered into with Mr. W. H. Weiss, of Kansas City, an expert gas and electric man, to assist in making a contract with the Paris Gas & Electric Co. Weiss is to receive twenty-five per cent. of the reduction from the present price, if he is successful, otherwise he is to receive nothing.

Lion or Lamb.

Chronologically correct in every respect March came in after February had slipped away, but no one is certain whether the new month came in "like a lion or like a lamb." The autoists must have thought it was lamb weather Sunday, as they kept the roads warm, and helped (?) in the conservation of gasoline by speeding up to the limit all day.

Because of the sharp reaction from the recent balmy weather, the consensus of opinion is that the newcomer is a lion clothed in a lamb skin, or a lamb which is making a near-successful effort to roar like a lion, said to be the king of beasts. The lion positively appeared, however, on that night not so long ago, when the temperature dropped to freezing.

Only two more weeks of "ground hog" weather are in store for us, if the signs are right, and very soon the Weather Bureau will be sending out frost warnings for amateur gardeners, instead of cold wave notices.

Now Is Time to Subscribe.

THE NEWS frequently hears complaints by subscribers who say their neighbors regularly borrow their paper, often before they themselves have had time to read it. These subscribers submit to such inconvenience rather than offend their neighbors by refusing to lend the paper.

Recently we had a subscriber to discontinue his paper, saying he liked it and hated to give it up, but his neighbors borrowed it regularly, even before he had time to read it, and he would therefore quit taking it for a month and see whether the neighbors would subscribe for it themselves.

People who borrow papers doubtless do not realize that they are annoying and inconveniencing the subscriber, or they would stop the practice of borrowing. A little thoughtfulness on the part of the borrower will lead to the conclusion that borrowing is a bad practice. Remember the old saying, "Neither a borrower or a lender be?"

If you have been a borrower why not now become a subscriber yourself and have the paper reach you regularly twice each week? Don't take a chance on annoying your neighbor when you can get the paper for a full year for only $2.00.

Let's Build Up Paris!

When Cain had killed off three-fourths of the people on the earth, leaving only three, then went into the land of Nod and built a city, it is very evident that he did not sit around like a bump on a log and growl about the people of Nod and the state of the real estate market. He was not himself, perhaps, the most exemplary of men, and if he had some reason for emigrating from his native land, he did not mope and whine, but got hold of a piece of ground and went to work to do something.

The man who could build up a city under such auspices is the kind of material we want in Paris, Ky. And we will not inquire too minutely into his antecedents just so he takes hold like a real man and can be good at that. We need a few more men here of that stamp. Those who have been doing the hustling for a long time would doubtless like to have a little help along that line. Cain did not advise his son to go West, and get out of the dead old town. He named the city after him, believed in it, worked for it, bought his goods there and kept his money at home. Now, all together for a better Paris!

Enter, Cleaning-Up Time.

The time will soon be here for you to paint up, and dress up, and fix up your premises, and help Paris to put on its Spring clothes. After the rough days of March have passed away there will be the beauty of the Spring time to help you out. So get busy and make your homes and premises look like a brand-new Liberty Bond just off the press. Take the garden rake and collect all the old rubbish that has been collecting all through the dead year of 1917 and set fire to it—the rubbish, not the rake—but don't burn down the house in the operation. Then go for the painters and the carpenters and all the other artisans who may be needed and have your home spick and span. It has been said that there is no place like home, so, therefore, see that there is really no place on earth like it for pure delight and comfort. And then you can call up your neighbor with a feeling of deep satisfaction, and speed the query: "Is everybody happy?" If they are not, it will be because they have not cleaned up their homes and made them presentable.

Would You Think It?

The average street fakir can take a stand and a dry goods box on a prominent street corner in Paris and in an hour can talk an audience of three dozen people out of $50 to $100. The editor of a first-class paper like THE NEWS might assume the position and plead twice as long to twice the number of people for the price of the year's subscription to the paper that congratulates a man on his marriage; that announces the birth of his children; that tells where his neighbors spend Sunday; warns him of tricksters and fakirs; brands him out as a wretch and scoundrel he goes to jail; and bears the burden of grief and sympathy of the entire community for a whole week when he dies, and at the same time bids him a successful journey to "the happy hunting grounds." Yet in too many cases the full worth and value of the paper to the community is scarcely recognized in comparison to the shekels that await the fakir and the fake promoters who swarm over the country. Is it not even so?

TO TAKE CANNED FOODS FOR USE OF U. S. SOLDIERS.

All canners have been advised by the Food Administration to hold for war purposes, until further advised, all canned corn, peas, tomatoes, string beans and salmon now on hand.

Reports of such holdings must be made at once, separate from those to be submitted before March 15. Canners who have no stocks are required to report indicating this fact. Quantities not wanted will be released at once.

Reassurance to householders that the government has no intention of commandeering any canned goods, preserves, home-grown food or usual stocks of provisions kept for family use was given in placards which the Food Administration will distribute to every postoffice and public library in the country. The placards were headed, "Do not be fooled by the lies of the enemy."

There are a number of other cases against him. He belongs to one of the largest and most influential families in the county and is one of Lincoln's leading financiers.

—The marriage of Miss Maybelle Dasher, of Macon, Georgia, to Mr. Joshua Hord Barnes, of Millersburg, was solemnized in the spacious drawing rooms of the Millersburg College, Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, Dr. C. C. Fisher, president of the institution, performing the ceremony.

The bridal procession was led by four dainty little ribbon bearers, followed by fifty young ladies of the College, in evening gowns, who sang the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, as they marched and countermarched down the broad colonial stairway and formed an avenue from its foot to the altar place. The altar where the young couple pledged their troth was tastefully decorated with ferns and palms. Little Miss Sarah Miller Best, bearing the ring in a lily bloom, preceded the bridesmaids, Miss Ethel May King and Miss Pauline Whitney, after whom came the bride's pair.

The ring ceremony of the Methodist church was impressively said by Dr. Fisher. About four hundred friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. The bride wore a tailored suit of midnight blue with grey accessories, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Prior to the ceremony an artistic musical program was rendered by Miss Ethel Love Fisher, pianist, and Miss Wantha Kleiser, violinist. After receiving congratulations the bridal party left for a short honeymoon trip, and upon their return will be "at home" to their friends at the home of the groom on the Maysville pike, near Millersburg.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Dasher, of Macon, Georgia, and is a strikingly handsome brunette of charming personality. She has been teacher of voice in the Millersburg College during the past year, and her conscientious work, together with the possession of a rare dramatic voice has made her an admired favorite. Mr. Barnes, a young man of strong character, and wide popularity, is a successful farmer and very popular in his vicinity and elsewhere.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS TELLS SECRET OF HIS HEALTH.

In view of the athletic ability as evidenced in his photoplays, Douglas Fairbanks was recently asked to reveal some of his rules for keeping in perfect condition. "To be athletic," replied the popular star, with a twinkle in his eye, "one should sleep at least eight hours a day. That's why I seldom sleep more than five. When first awakening, you should drink a glass of hot water—I eat a grape-fruit. Meats should be eaten with moderation; personally I would suggest a Hungarian goulash for lunch and a boiled Irish stew for dinner. One of the principal things, however, about athletics is exercising, without it one cannot become an athlete. Those who strive for physical prowess often neglect the mental and spiritual. A half hour each day should be devoted to serious reading—psychology and metaphysics. But the best rule is, don't worry, always SMILE."

WOOD CUT BY PASTOR STOLEN DURING SERMON.

The work of the meanest thief was revealed at Winona, Minn., when a local pastor, who had been engaged in chopping wood on heatless Mondays, discovered that a pile of cord wood made ready for hauling had been stolen. The theft took place while the pastor was preaching from the pulpit.

AMERICAN GUNNERS SHOW GER- MANS A TRICK OR TWO

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, March 4.—With the aid of French observers, American artillery probably destroyed German trenches from which the gas was thrown in Tuesday's attack.

Working in a sea of mud, Yankee gunners kept shells screaming toward the Boches, one a minute, for an hour. Mud, boards and sand bags in the rear of the German first line flew skyward.

A French observer located special trenches consisting of six double rows of 20 gas projectors to a trench, a total of 120. These are believed to have been demolished by American fire.

American gas casualties now number 84—six dead and 78 in the hospital. There may be one more death among those gassed. The others are improving.

The slight cases are anxious to return to the trenches.

The first German attempt to raid trenches where the Americans are training, near the Chemin Des Dames, was repulsed.

A hundred Boche raiders were stopped by American machine gun fire and an artillery barrage. There were no American casualties, and the Sammies have yet to lose a prisoner at that point. Five Frenchmen were wounded.

American troops in that place were gassed the same day. Fifty projectiles, 80 per cent. gas and 20 per cent. high explosives, were fired into American trenches.

By quick donning of gas masks casualties were kept to one dead and eight injured.

Among other casualties at Chemin Des Dames were one American officer and one enlisted man killed and two wounded.

The Kaiser and the Devil.

Said the Kaiser to the devil:
"Good Friend, I have a plan,
Which with your aid I'll carry out,
So help me if you can."

"I've slaughtered helpless children,
And murdered women, too,
And killed with poison gases
Brave soldiers, staunch and true."

"I've sent the Lusitania
To the bottom of the deep,
And the shrieks of those who perished
Were like music in my sleep."

"But now my aims are higher,
And I long for nobler prey,
So put your subtle brain to work
And we will win the day."

"I want to conquer 'Uncle Sam'.
If you can pave the way,
So think it up, don't mind the cost,
For that I'll gladly pay."

"The devil gravely wagged his tail,
And said 'I'd like the fun
But those soldier boys in 'khaki'
Will never be outdone."

"I know just how you hate them,
With their flag of stripes and stars,
But they never will be vanquished,
With such loyal men and tars."

"And as for 'Uncle Sam' there's none
That can with him compare,
For he rules the 'Land of Freedom',
So I dare not help you there."

"And, furthermore, I warn you,
To give up your latest plan,
Or you will surely find yourself
A sadder, wiser man."

"The Kaiser listened in a rage,
And said, 'Oh! very well,
If that's your boasted friendship
You can just go back to hell.'"

So the devil turned and left him,
Without even a salaam,
But as he went he whispered,
'I'll bet on 'Uncle Sam!'

CONSERVATION.

"The average American home is overheated," declares Dr. Garfield, head of the Federal Fuel Administration. "A room heated above 68 degrees Fahrenheit is too warm for health and exposes its occupants to catarrhal diseases and pneumonia." While the foregoing health recommendation is primarily intended to promote the conservation of coal, the Fuel Administration is supported by some of the most eminent medical authorities in the country in urging its general adoption. Even a baby is warm enough in a temperature of 68 degrees, according to Dr. S. Josephine Baker, head of the Bureau of Child Hygiene, of New York.

With the gradual development of the tremendous demands of the war industrial program will eventually make on the fuel supplies of the country, the urgent need of coal conservation becomes manifest. Even the most effective fuel control measures will be impotent to prevent a coal shortage unless the American housewife practices the most rigid economy, according to the government fuel experts. Among the coal conservation practices suggested are the following:

"Burn wood instead of coal wherever that is possible. Use the crooked and defective trees from the woodlot if you live in the country. One cord of hard wood is equivalent to a ton of coal, according to the Fuel Administration."

"Rural churches and grange halls should substitute wood for coal. Wood makes a quicker fire, dies down sooner, and its use will release coal for other purposes."

"Don't burn coal in your open grate fires. Use wood instead. The open grate at best is wasteful of fuel. Burn waste wood as much as possible."

'Tis said that ex-Czar Nick saws wood in the morning. And says nothing in the afternoon?

AUTO TURNS TURTLE—OCCUPANT SLIGHTLY INJURED.

While enroute in an automobile to Winchester, Sunday, Mr. W. C. Bell, local manager of the Bourbon Oil & Development Co., figured in a slight accident by which he sustained painful but not serious injuries. Presumably meditating on the good news from the oil fields, where drillers announced a thirty-barrel well, Mr. Bell lost control of the steering gear, the machine missed a bridge on the Winchester pike, and went over a steep embankment, "turning turtle" twice. Mr. Bell fortunately came up on top when the machine made its last plunge, and came out of the encounter with but a few bruises and scratches.

Another machine was secured, and Mr. Bell continued his journey. The damaged machine was returned to a local garage for repairs.

FLOUR MILLS CLOSED FOR VIOLATION OF RULINGS.

Last night's Lexington Leader in its news columns had the following item regarding the closing of certain flour mills in Central Kentucky, which shows that Uncle Sam does not intend to be trifled with:

"Certain flour mills in Shelbyville, Georgetown and Millersburg have been closed down by the Federal Food Administration for alleged violations of the administration rulings, it was announced by District Food Administrator W. E. Simms. The administration is conducting an investigation of the mills in Central Kentucky for practices not in accordance with the rulings of the Food Administration."

BILL FOR FEDERAL OPERATION OF RAILWAYS PASSES HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The bill to govern Federal operation of railroads passed the House by a vote of 337 to 6.

Two Democrats and four Republicans voted against the measure when the final test came. They were Thomas, Kentucky, and Gordon, Ohio, Democrats; Chandler, Oklahoma; Denison, Illinois; Haugen, Iowa, and Ramseyer, Iowa, Republicans.

The Senate previously had passed the bill which now goes to conference for settlement of differences between the two houses. The House bill provides for the return of the roads to their owners two years after the war ends, instead of in eighteen months, as the Senate draft proposes, and the House measure vests final rate fixing authority in the President, while the Senate would leave this power in the Interstate Commerce Commission.

These two sections of the bill caused spirited fights in the House Thursday. Opponents of these features won momentary victories when the bill was discussed in committee of the whole, but on final vote proponents marshaled their forces, mostly on the Democratic side, and succeeded in putting through the bill with these features intact as framed by the committee.

An amendment by Representative Sweet, of Iowa, giving the rate making power to the Interstate Commerce Commission was adopted in committee of the whole 164 to 157. This showed almost the full strength for the amendment as when the vote was taken on final passage it was defeated 165 to 211.

In the committee of the whole an amendment by Representative Esch, of Wisconsin, to limit tenure after the war to one year was adopted 133 to 40, but like the Sweet amendment it was thrown out on final passage, 206 to 166.

PARIS EVIDENCE FOR PARIS PEOPLE

The Statements of Paris Residents Are Surely More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers

Home testimony is real proof. Public testimony of Paris people carry real weight.

What a friend or neighbor says compels respect. The word of one whose home is far away invites your doubts.

Here's a Paris man's statement. And it's for Paris people's benefit. Such evidence is convincing.

That's the kind of proof that backs Doan's Kidney Pills.

J. W. Larkin, farmer, 431 High street, says: "I am only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, because I have at times had quite a bit of trouble with my back. Often, I had a dreadful ache across my kidneys and the kidney secretions were too frequent in passage. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills at these times has never failed to cure me of an attack."

Mr. Larkin is only one of many Paris people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches, of your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Larkin had, the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all stores. GERMAN PRINTERS GET INCREASE IN WAGES.

After protracted negotiations, the wages of men employed in the printing trade in Germany have been revised, war bonuses of from 10 to 20 per cent being granted. Over time work is to be paid at an advance of 75 per cent. over the old rates. To compensate the employers for these advances and other increased working costs, the ordinary charges for printing will be increased 100 per cent.

German interests are acquiring some of the most influential newspapers in Austria, according to an official despatch from France. Her Princhon, general director of the Vienna Fremdenblatt, the Mittags Journal and the Allgemeine Zeitung the despatches say, has obtained control of the most prominent papers in Prague and other cities on behalf of a German syndicate.

This is a one hundred million dollar country and Mr. McAdoo may think he can run it—on and after March 4, 1921; he's getting some practice.

GERMAN KULTUR TRYING TO DECEIVE GERMAN PEOPLE.

NEW YORK, March 4.—"The German press is carefully and adroitly continuing to foster the idea among the German people that America is not really in earnest about the war," declared Dr. N. A. Davis, in discussing the situation in Berlin as he left it just a month ago. Dr. Davis, formerly of Piqua, Ohio, is the American dentist who lived in the German capital for fifteen years and numbered Emperor William among his patients.

"Every effort is being made to belittle America—even the highest officials are attempting to convey the impression that Germany has little to fear from the United States. Practically nothing is printed concerning America except the President's addresses on war aims and the possible basis of a permanent peace. Even these are treated by the papers as if the President were speaking as a sort of detached person whose interest was the welfare of the world, not with the idea that they represent the earnest determination of the American people to see the war through to a successful conclusion."

"Not until Germany begins to feel the military pressure of the United States will the people realize the new conditions that confront them. Then, predict, the fostered enmity toward England will be as nothing to the hatred that will be poured out by the inspired press against America."

AMERICA HUSTLING TO KEEP SOLDIERS IN SHOES.

Although the war department now has on hand and contracted for a total of 15,437,000 pairs of shoes, Secretary Baker announced that more than 1,000,000 pairs of shoes will have to be secured for the army this year. This is made necessary by the building up of adequate stocks of reserves, both in France and in this country.

General Pershing, having in mind the length of time shoes are expected to last the men in France, has requested shipment of 18,590 pairs of shoes for each 25,000 monthly, or approximately nine pairs of shoes per man annually. This quantity is in excess of actual consumption, and when a reserve supply is built up the quantity of shoes will be reduced.

MAMA! DON'T YOU SEE YOUR CHILD IS SICK, CONSTIPATED

Look At Tongue! Move Poison From Liver and Bowels at Once.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross, and peevish. See its tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly printed on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Co."

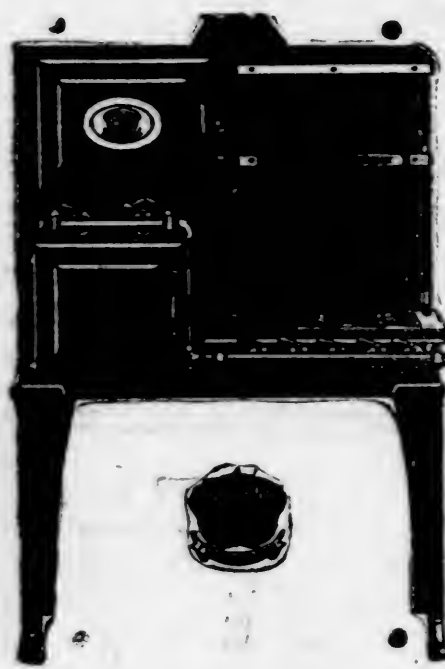

The trouble is that the Mr. Saunders who announces the unsinkable ship is the same Mr. Saunders.

MISS SIMMS ENTERTAINS WITH A HOOVER DINNER.

Miss Simms entertained all the women of the county, who had so patriotically served in the Food Administration Campaign, with a buffet luncheon at her home, Mt. Airy, on Friday.

The ladies were asked to serve at this most vital post of duty for the duration of the war. We feel sure they will have the earnest support of the men and women of the county.

The following recipes for conserving wheat were used.

ROLLS.

3/4 teacup of sifted corn meal; 2 1/2 teacups flour; 1 teaspoon salt; 2 tablespoons sugar; 1 tablespoon lard; 1 cup lukewarm liquid, (milk and water; 1 cake yeast.

Pour lukewarm liquid on meal, add yeast (dissolved in liquid), add it to dry ingredients, into which the lard has already been worked. Set dough to rise at a temperature of between 70 and 80 degrees. When double in bulk, make into small rolls and let rise again. Bake in hot oven fifteen to twenty minutes.

BEATEN BISCUIT.

2 1/2 pints sifted flour; 1/2 pint sifted rye flour; 1 large kitchen spoon of lard; 1 teaspoon of salt.

Mix flour and salt, and work into two pints of mixture the well-chilled lard. Make into stiff dough with ice water and very little milk. Work through kneader one hundred and fifty times, gradually adding rest of flour. Roll one-half inch thick, cut into biscuit and stick with fork. Bake in hot oven until light brown.

FARMERS ARE FACING SEED CORN SHORTAGE.

A statement campaign is to be made by agricultural extension leaders in Kentucky to have farmers throughout the State test during the first ten days of March all seed corn to be planted this year. Co-ordinated efforts, it is realized, are necessary to prevent a crop shortage this year, in view of the seed corn situation. Because of the early frosts many States are almost without seed corn, and agricultural authorities here are seeking to prevent the planting of any corn unless it proves strong in germination. State and county organizations are to unite their efforts in the campaign and Gov. Stanley will issue a proclamation. The aid of Food Administrator Sackett also will be secured.

Arrangements will be made for temporary agents in counties not having regular agricultural agents. The plan is to enlist the service of all schools, especially in county seats, in the work, where farmers may take their seed corn to have it properly tested.

KENTUCKY'S DRIVE IN NEXT RED CROSS DRIVE $900,000.

The quota of the Lake Division of the American Red Cross in the second Red Cross drive to raise a fund of $100,000,000 to carry on the war work of that organization among the fighting men and civilian populations of the United States and allied countries of the United States and allied countries, will be $9,400,000, it was announced at the headquarters of the Lake Division at Cleveland, O., Saturday night.

Of this amount Kentucky's quota will be $900,000; Indiana's $2,100,000, and Ohio's $6,400,000. The drive will be directed in each of the three States by a State director not yet named, and it will extend through the week of May 6 to May 13.

COUNTY LIVE STOCK INSPECTOR DESCRIBES NEW CATTLE DISEASE.

Hemorrhagic Septicemia, an outbreak of which occurred in a herd of cattle belonging to Mr. J. L. Dodge, near Paris, is an infectious disease affecting cattle, sheep, hogs and in fact most all domestic animals, and is caused by a specific germ, called Bacillus Bovis Septicus, generally occurring enzootic but occasionally in epizootic form.

This disease occurs in many different forms. A form such as occurred in the above herd is commonly called "Mad Itch"; other forms show different symptoms such as staggering gait, apparent loss of vision, convulsions and death; some have bowel affections causing severe diarrhea; some show pneumonic or lung affections and many other symptoms due to the severe toxemia of the system. All usually result in death, especially the above mentioned forms of the disease.

This disease is very prevalent in the western states and has occurred in Kentucky in enzootic outbreaks in many herds, but in a good many instances has been diagnosed Hemorrhagic Septicemia, but generally thought to be Forage Poisoning, due to animals eating spoiled or moulded corn, causing symptoms of Cerebral-Spinal Meningitis.

It is a very difficult disease to diagnose except upon post mortem examination of animals dead of the disease, and this verified by laboratory examination of sections of internal organs. Whereas the Bacillus in many instances can be found under the microscope. If the microscopic examination fails to isolate the organism, a direct inoculation of a rabbit with spleen of dead animal will establish definite diagnosis.

The mortality of Hemorrhagic Septicemia is very high, that is animals affected usually die of the most severe forms, vaccination will save a small per cent of sick animals, but the best results are to be obtained from vaccinating all exposed animals before the disease develops. Outbreaks can, as a rule, be almost immediately checked or stopped by vaccination, which at present, is the only known preventative.

Animals sick of this disease should be isolated and the exposed herd, and premises, quarantined and all other animals on the farm kept separate and away from affected herd. Carcasses of animals, dead of this disease, should be burned or buried and covered with lime, hides can be saved, provided they are dipped in a standard disinfectant solution. One handling carcasses and hides should be very careful and thoroughly disinfect hands afterwards.

Practically all noted investigators of the United States have agreed that the commonly called forage poisoning and conditions supposed to result from eating spoiled or mouldy corn of cattle is nothing more than Hemorrhagic Septicemia. This is more or less proven from the fact that practically all outbreaks of above mentioned diseases are controlled and eradicated by vaccination with Hemorrhagic Septicemia Vaccine.

Mr. Dodge had lost ten steers of a herd of fifty-six and one was sick at the time of vaccination. Following the vaccination, the one sick died, and two others developed the disease and died, one of these showed much milder symptoms and lived several hours longer than previous cases. Two others also developed a mild form of the disease and recovered, thus showing the beneficial effect of the vaccine.

The above herd was vaccinated again on the eighth day to insure the animals immunity for a longer period of time and to guard against a recurrence of the disease.

This herd was placed on different pasture and feed was changed for a few days, but were put back on same feed again, also Mr. Dodge had a herd feeding of twenty-eight head of steers, some distance from the diseased herd, and had been, and are yet, eating the same feed the diseased herd was feeding on when they were taken sick, and none of that herd has ever been sick. This also goes to show that the feed is not a factor in the cause of said disease.

The disease in the herd of cattle belonging to Mr. Dodge was diagnosed by me from post mortem examination on a dead steer. Section of internal organs were sent from this steer by me to the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, at Lexington, and my diagnosis was verified by them by microscopic examination in laboratory as Hemorrhagic Septicemia.

FORGOT WHAT HE NEEDED.

From the Republican, Mt. Gliald, Ohio: The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to his office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: "Now I know!" "What is it you are looking for," we inquired. "My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerk named over everything on the shelf except "Chamberlain's". I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of drug stores, that they post their clerks, and never let them substitute. Customers lose faith in stores where substituting is permitted to say nothing of the injustice to the makers of good goods and the disappointment of customers. (adv. March)

Glad as we are that the Col. is convalescing so rapidly, we suppose science will never be able to explain why it was not his vocal organs, instead of his auricular machinery, that got out of whack.

LOCAL ATTORNEY FIGURES IN BIG OIL SUIT.

IRVINE, KY., March 4.—Suits for $112,500, growing out of a transaction in oil properties, was brought here recently by J. Fred Miles, formerly of Tulsa, Okla., now of Lexington, Ky., against the Union Oil Company, which has offices here and at Cleveland, Ohio.

The petition, one of the most voluminous and exhaustive documents ever filed in Eastern Kentucky, was prepared by Messrs. Robt. B. Franklin, of Lexington, and Robert C. Talbot, of Paris, and Judge Ed. C. O'Rear, of Frankfort, attorneys for the plaintiff.

The Union Oil Company, the petition recites, is a Kentucky corporation, holding leases on 1,280 acres of land in Estill and Powell Counties, the greater portion being in Estill County. Its capital stock is $75,000, and its officers are W. R. Thompson, Jacksonville, Fla., President; Norwood Johnson, Pittsburg, Penn., Vice President; Carl J. Weidman, Cleveland, Ohio, Treasurer, and M. O. Thompson, Irvine, Ky., Secretary.

J. Fred Miles is an experienced oil operator from the Oklahoma field, and is one of the pioneers in the Kentucky field. His attention was called to the properties of the United Oil Company by James Hillis, who has the distinction of having drilled the first thirteen producing wells in the Tickey Fork district and of having induced the building of the Cumberland pipe line to the Estill County field.

About May 1, 1917, the petition recites, J. Fred Miles was introduced to Carl J. Weidman and other stockholders of the United Oil Company, and it was agreed that Miles should send his field men to the property to make an investigation of its approximate value, with the understanding that if the reports of the investigators should be favorable Miles would enter into negotiations with the United Oil Company for the purchase of the property.

The reports were favorable, and on May 10 Miles went to New York and consulted his financial backers, former Governor Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland, and William F. Bonbright & Co., bankers of New York, to the end that he went to Cleveland, and on May 15, the petition sets forth, closed an agreement with the United Oil Company, through Carl J. Weidman, under which he procured an option on the properties at a price to be $1,500,000 net cash to the company.

The following day, Miles, according to the petition and substantiated by papers filed as exhibits, advised the company that he would take the property at the price stipulated, subject to the settlement of litigation then pending in the Estill Circuit Court, concerning a portion of the W. L. Marcum farm, covering approximately 50 acres above the cliff, and known as the Christopher tract.

A $3,000,000 corporation was organized to take over the properties of the United Oil Company through J. Fred Miles, together with the holdings of J. Fred Miles, and into this corporation with Miles and Bonbright & Co. came J. I. Lamprecht, of Cleveland.

The $1,500,000 to be paid the United Oil Company was provided, and Miles and his associates in the $3,000,000 corporation, the petition states, called upon the United Oil Company to deliver the properties with titles clear, with the exception of the Marcum litigation, to cover which it had been agreed, $180,000, would be held in escrow.

But the petition recites, defects in the title were discovered and made known to the buyer and seller and their attorneys.

Thereupon Miles and associates in the $3,000,000 corporation demanded of the United Oil Company that it clear up and "deliver to them good and merchantable titles," which it date, according to the petition, the United Oil Company has failed to do.

It is generally believed in this section that the holding of the United Oil Company combined with the holdings of J. Fred Miles were worth $4,500,000 to $5,000,000. At the time of the purchase by Miles the United Oil Company had 40 wells producing 2,200 barrels daily, and 50 or 60 undrilled locations.

RELIGIOUS.

—There will be a congregational meeting immediately after the regular services of the Presbyterian church at the court house Sunday morning.

—At a meeting of the Church Board of the Christian church, held Sunday afternoon, it was decided to hold a revival, beginning the last Sunday in April. Rev. J. J. Castleberry, of Mayfield, Ky., a pulpit orator of wide reputation and ability will assist Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the church, in conducting the meeting.

—The week beginning Sunday, and ending next Sunday will be observed by the Baptists of Kentucky as a week of prayer for the home mission work of the denomination. The women's organizations of the churches will meet for special services during the week, and the churches have been asked to hold appropriate services for the observance.

—The International Sunday School Association, with headquarters in Chicago, has begun a continent-wide campaign for the observance of Children's week, May 5 to 12 of this year, and an effort will be made to have celebrations similar to those of the recent Father and Son movement in every community of the nation. The main subject to be stressed during the celebrations is "The Religious Education of the Children."

—Rev. R. E. Abrams, of Brooklyn, New York, who was recently called to the pastorate of St. Peter's Episcopal church, in this city, has written to the Board of Vestrymen of the church, owing to continued ill-health, he will be unable to accept the pastorate, and will not come to Paris. A new rector to succeed Rev. Abraham will be selected soon. Rev. Abraham was rector of this church several years ago.

Pledges for the giving of at least $3,000,000 for the benevolent work of the Southern Presbyterian church will be the object of services to be held during the next three Sundays, beginning last Sunday, in every church in the denomination. Plans in preparation for the campaign have been under way for several months, and by the enlistment of approximately 1,500 laymen in addition to the more than 2,000 ministers of the church, every pulpit will be supplied for two Sundays, the first time in the history of the denomination.

POPULAR YOUNG VIOLINIST IN PATRIOTIC CONCERT.

Paris people will recall with pleasure the appearance here on several occasions of a talented young violinist, Mr. Jules Falk, of Philadelphia, whose artistic rendering of popular and classical numbers won him instant and unstinted applause. Mr. Falk is a first cousin of Mr. Louis Wollstein, of Paris. He will appear in a patriotic concert in Louisville this week. The Courier-Journal says:

"Two concerts are announced to be given on Friday and Saturday nights of this week by Jules Falk, violinist, assisted by Gertrude Arnold, contralto, and Malvina Ehrlich, pianist, in the auditorium of the Tyler Hotel. These concerts are for the benefit of the Business Women's Club, of which Mrs. Tevis Goodloe is president, the artists being presented by the National Society for Broader Education. Since Mr. Falk's previous appearance here he has played with great success in many places. He was a pupil of the celebrated Bohemian violinist Sevcik and later of Ysaye and has received flattering notices from critics both in this country and Europe. Miss Arnold is said to possess a voice of unusual beauty and range."

BIRTHS.

—To the wife of Mr. Walter Mastin, of this city, on March 1, a daughter, Mrs. Mastin was formerly Miss Sarah Smith.

—To the wife of Mr. Taylor Chandler, in this city, on March 1, a son; weight 9½ pounds; second child. The mother was formerly Miss Lou Kniffin Howard, of Paris.

George W. Perkins was very active in the Republican National Committee at St. Louis. In the meantime it is perhaps pertinent to ask to which party George W. Perkins belongs.

MARCH COURT DAY.

There was a large crowd in the city yesterday to attend March court day, the time-honored old institution seemingly having retained its hold on the people. In spite of the threatening weather there was a considerable business transacted among the stockholders, and a large number of animals changed hands at good prices. The farmers were discussing the prospects for seed corn, tobacco and other matters of interest to their calling. Merchants report business good and collections a close second.

At the stock pens of M. J. Murphy & Co., thirty head of Jersey cows and heifers sold for an average of $80 per head. The purchasers were for the most part Bourbon county people, while there was a fair sprinkling of bidders from other counties.

At the livery stable of Thos. G. Morris, Auctioneer George D. Speakes sold for the Woods Livestock Co. thirty-one head of farm mares for an average of $205 per head. The mares were all broke to harness and were from three to six years old.

Auctioneer Geo. D. Speakes sold for Myers & McClintock at Fuhrman's barns, 28 head of mules, which averaged $270 per head. Seven horses averaged $222.50.

STOCK, CROP, ETC.

—Twenty-two head of grade cows were sold at public auction by Auctioneer George D. Speakes last week at the M. J. Murphy & Co.'s pens for an average of $70 per head.
